RE: Professional Opportunity Bulletins

Dear Mr. Mooney:

This letter is written to inform you, the Chicago Transit Authority about ATU-Local 241's most recent decision in reference to the Professional Opportunity Bulletins. I have made many attempts over the last two months trying to engage both parties into several meeting dates. This effort has become arduous and jaded. Now I have taken the attitude that the Authority has deliberately pretext and protracted this matter.

This union will continue its effort, not exceeding October 6, 2006, in a hopeful resolution. If this negligible attitude continues, we will move our effort to litigation with Carmell, Charone, Widmer, Mathews & Moss. We look forward and anticipate a more serious commitment from you the Chicago Transit Authority.

Sincerely,

Darryle West
1st Vice President
